Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University

- Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University is an independent, not-for-profit university. The University serves culturally diverse students seeking careers in aviation, aerospace, engineering, technology and related fields.
- The university's tradition of educating service members began in 1970 at Fort Rucker in Alabama and has grown to include base locations in Europe, the Middle East, Japan and South Korea.
- Two residential campuses in Daytona Beach, FL, and Prescott, AZ serve traditional students.
- Our Worldwide Campus provides instruction through a globally recognized learning system that leverages online and face-to-face delivery methods and a network of education facilities designed to support student advancement in the U.S. and abroad.
- The Worldwide Campus currently serve more than 23,000 students. App. 17,000 students are either active-duty military or student veterans.
