

SAN Birthday Bash Trivia Contest

Rules:

No Internet Search!

Honor System to keep tally of correct answers!

Questions:

1. What was the year of the release of the first final Federal regulation for state authorization of distance education?
2. Name one of SAN's Special Interest Teams?
3. After the original final Federal regulation for state authorization of distance education was vacated by the Federal courts, in what year(s) did the Department of Education revisit the Federal regulation for state authorization of distance education with a negotiated rulemaking process?
4. Name one topic area for which SAN offers a Talking Points white paper.
5. What year did the SAN website go live?
6. Name a city other than Boulder that was the site of a SAN Workshop.
7. What popular red, green, and yellow tool was formerly used pre-SARA to help with state authorization management?
8. Name (citation number) the Federal regulation that requires or required that a direct disclosure be acknowledged by the student.
9. Name a state that has reporting requirements for annual renewal for direct state institutional approval.
10. Name a state agency other than the state higher education agency that may require oversight, registration, or approval, if activities occur in that state.